FALLEN SOLDIER FAMILY LICENSE PLATES

House Bill 1028 passes in Senate Committee

DENVER—In the United States there are a number of small ways that we recognize those who serve our country through military service.

Today, Senator Jim Isgar (D-Hesperus) introduced House Bill 1028 to the State Veterans and Military Affairs Committee, which would allow the families of fallen soldiers to purchase these special license plates in honor of their deceased loved ones' military service.

The

In Colorado, veterans and military personnel are eligible for special license plates to honor their contribution to our state and nation. However, it is not currently possible for the families of soldiers who have passed away to put military license plates on their vehicles.

The bill (X) in committee with a vote of (X-X).
